Las prácticas editoriales cuestionables van en aumento...

Estos modelos pueden socavar la confianza pública en la investigación y la integridad de la investigación y representan un desperdicio significativo de recursos de investigación.

Web of Science Journal Evaluation Process and Selection Criteria

Conducted by a team of expert in-house editors.

Not affiliated to publishers or research institutions.

Each editor focuses on specific subject categories, getting a deep knowledge of the publishing landscape in that field.

Journal data and information are collected by the editors independently rather than relying on data provided by the publishers.

We do not use algorithmic approaches or delegate any editorial decisions on the research community.

All editors use the same set of 24 quality and 4 impact criteria to evaluate all journals.

Buscar una materia

■ Buscar un tema

■ Buscar siempre los términos en inglés

(incluso si el artículo original está escrito en otro idioma, se indexará siempre en inglés en Web of Science)

■ Cuando buscas por tema, buscas palabras clave en:

- Títulos
- Resúmenes
- Palabras clave del autor
- KeyWords Plus (generado automáticamente en base a los títulos de las referencias bibliográficas)

NOTA - Tenga en cuenta que antes de 1991, Web of Science solo indexaba títulos, autores y referencias citadas. Web of Science comenzó a indexar resúmenes y palabras clave en 1991.

Utilizar los operadores booleanos

Utilice el operador OR para ampliar una búsqueda

- El operador OR permite recuperar resultados que contengan al menos uno de los términos (útil para conceptos similares)
- plants OR horticulture

Utilice el operador AND para acotar una búsqueda

- El operador AND permite recuperar resultados que contienen todos los términos (útil para asociar diferentes conceptos)
- genetics AND plants

Utilice el operador NOT para excluir un término

- El operador NOT permite excluir determinados documentos de los resultados
- genetics NOT plants

¿Por qué crear una cuenta de Web of Science?

- Para acceder a la Web of Science de forma remota (<http://www.webofscience.com/>) durante 12 meses sin VPN/Proxy/SSO
- Para guardar mis búsquedas y crear alertas
- Para crear listas de documentos
- Para guardar las búsquedas y los documentos vistos durante un año en el historial
- Para tener una página de inicio personalizada
- Para usar la misma cuenta en Journal Citation Reports, Essential Science Indicators, InCites, Master Journal List y navegar rápidamente entre las diferentes plataformas

Crear una cuenta Web of Science (gratuito)

Antes de crear su cuenta, asegúrese de acceder a Web of Science in situ o a través de una conexión remota a través de su organización para que pueda beneficiarse de la suscripción completa a Web of Science (consulte las instrucciones de acceso). De lo contrario, solo tendrás acceso gratuito y parcial a Web of Science para ver perfiles de investigadores.

The screenshot shows the Web of Science registration interface. At the top, there's a navigation bar with the Clarivate logo, language selection (English), product links, and a sign-in/register section. A purple arrow points to the "Register" button in the top right corner of the header. The main content area has a purple background with white text. It starts with a heading "Register to personalize your Web of Science experience" followed by a subtext: "With your institution's access, you can register for an account to unlock more Web of Science features:". Below this, there are four feature cards with icons and descriptions:

- Save work: Save your searches or create customized marked lists to organize your research.
- Find new content faster: View recommended content in your search results and directly on your personalized homepage.
- Connect to more products: Export to your EndNote library with one click and stay signed in across Clarivate products.
- Stay up to date: Receive alerts for new search results, citing articles, and journal content in your research area.

The left side of the page contains a form for entering personal information and a CAPTCHA field. The "Register" button is located at the bottom of the form.

Journal Citation Indicator

Introducido en 2021, el Journal Citation Indicator aprovecha otra medida de Clarivate: Category Normalized Citation Impact (CNCI), una métrica que se encuentra en InCites. El valor del Journal Citation Indicator es la media del CNCI para todos los artículos y revisiones publicados en una revista en los tres años anteriores.

Sacar conclusiones mejor informadas sobre el impacto de la revista.

For each article and review:

$$\text{Category Normalized Citation Impact (CNCI)} = \frac{\text{Actual citations}}{\text{Expected citations}}$$

Expected citations = Average cites to items of the same document type, year, and category

Interpreting the Journal Citation Indicator

- A normalized ratio for easier comparisons
- While $JCI=1$ is the average* for the category, most journals will have a $JCI < 1$

*in practice, owing to the calculation the average will be slightly less than 1.

El Journal Citation Indicator (JCI) está diseñado para complementar el Journal Impact Factor (JIF) y otras métricas utilizadas actualmente en la comunidad de investigación.

Como muestra este ejemplo, los dos no son lo mismo.

Explore varios ángulos del desarrollo de una revista con la amplia gama de métricas en Journal Citation Reports.

Streamline discovery of early career scholarship

The screenshot shows the Clarivate search interface. At the top, there is a black bar with the text "English ▾" and a user icon. Below it, the word "Search" is displayed. The interface is divided into two main sections: "DOCUMENTS" on the left and "RESEARCHERS" on the right. In the "DOCUMENTS" section, there is a search bar labeled "Search in: ProQuest™ Dissertations & Theses Citation Index" with a "New" button. A red arrow points to this search bar. Below the search bar is a list of document sources: Data Citation Index, Derwent Innovations Index, FSTA® - the food science resource, Inspec®, KCI-Korean Journal Database, MEDLINE®, Preprint Citation Index (with a "New" button), ProQuest™ Dissertations & Theses Citation Index (highlighted with a purple background and a "New" button), SciELO Citation Index, and Zoological Record. In the "RESEARCHERS" section, there is a large box for the "ProQuest™ Dissertations & Theses Citation Index" (1637-present). It describes the database as the world's most comprehensive curated collection of multi-disciplinary dissertations and theses from around the world, offering over 5 million citations and 3 million full-text works from thousands of universities. It highlights that within dissertations and theses is a wealth of scholarship, yet it is often overlooked because most go unpublished. It also mentions that the database delivers a focused path for researchers by tapping into a global network of connected research. A "Search" button is located at the bottom right of this box. The text "Data updated 2023-03-10" is at the very bottom of the page.

- >172M indexed and linked cited references connect dissertations and theses to the Web of Science network
- Graduate works from 4K+ universities in 60+ countries around the world
- For PQDT Global subscribers, links to 3M+ full text documents that include:
 - Innovative methodologies and experimental details outlined in the full document
 - Unpublished datasets and results found only in the dissertation document

Graduate students can independently publish their dissertation or thesis with ProQuest and Web of Science - FOR FREE!

The screenshot shows the Web of Science Researcher Profile page for April (Harlin Cognato) Ellsey. The profile includes basic information like name, photo, and affiliation (Texas A&M University College Station). It lists 16 documents, including publications like "Dusky dolphin foraging habitat: overlap with aquaculture in New Zealand" and "Skin swabbing for genetic analysis: Application to dusky dolphins [Lagenorhynchus obscurus]". A red box highlights the "Dissertation or Thesis" section, which links to her thesis titled "Molecular systematics and phylogeography of Lagenorhynchus obscurus derived from nuclear and mitochondrial loci". The right side of the page displays metrics such as H-index (10), citations (321), and an Author Impact Beamplot Summary.

- Claim your dissertation or thesis in your Web of Science Researcher Profile to make your early-career work more visible to researchers and leaders at 9,000 organizations around the world using Web of Science.

Righteous violence: killing for God, country, freedom and justice

Pyszczynski, T; Motyl, M and Abdollahi, A

2009 | BEHAVIORAL SCIENCES OF TERRORISM AND POLITICAL AGGRESSION 1 (1), pp.12-39

The present article uses terror management theory (TMT) to explore the psychological, social and cultural forces that lead diverse groups and individuals to endorse, promote and enact violence against innocent individuals. From this perspective, it is the psychological function of religious, ideological, national or ethnic ties that is crucial for understanding how they can lead to hatred and v

Imagine no religion: Heretical disgust, anger and the symbolic purity of mind

Ritter, RS; Preston, JL; (...); Relihan-Johnson, D

May 18 2016 | COGNITION & EMOTION 30 (4), pp.778-796

Immoral actions, including physical/sexual (e.g., incest) and social (e.g., unfairness) taboos, are often described as disgusting. But what about immoral thoughts, more specifically, thoughts that violate religious beliefs? Do heretical thoughts taint the purity of mind? The present research examined heretical disgust using self-report measures and facial electromyography. Religious thought vio

Alerta de cita para una búsqueda de referencias citadas

When you create an alert from the results page of the cited reference search you save your search and ask Web of Science to notify you by email when documents citing your searched item are added, whether your searched item is indexed in Web of Science or not (book, work of art, patent, etc.)

The screenshot shows the Web of Science search interface. At the top, a search bar displays the query: "Internet use and political attitudes in Europe" (Cited Title). Below the search bar are three buttons: "Analyze Results", "Citation Report", and "Create Alert". A purple arrow points down from the "Create Alert" button to a modal window titled "Create search alert". In the modal, the "Alert Name" field contains "Citations to this paper", and the "Send me email alerts" checkbox is checked. A large purple "CREATE" button is at the bottom. Another purple arrow points down from the "CREATE" button to the main search results page. On this page, the search details show "Citations of 'Internet use and political attitudes in Europe' (Cited Title)" and "Database: All Databases". The status is "Active". Below this, the "Search details" section lists "Database: All Databases" and "Date Created: August 19, 2022". The "Description (optional)" field contains "Description". The "Alert preferences" section shows "Email recipients: anne.delgado@clarivate.com" and "Frequency: Weekly". A checkbox for "Continue to receive emails when there are no new results" is unchecked. At the bottom, a link "No longer want to receive alerts? Remove" is visible.
